

HAWAII TO BE AFTER PENNANT IN NEXT SERIES

Frank Kalua Has Strengthened His Team; Many Youngsters Developed; Nine Pitchers

As the first series of the Pacific League comes to its final round, the managers, players and fans are looking forward to the team that will earn the title for the second series. This is the question now under discussion in the baseball world and a subject that is worrying the cellar teams more than the topnotchers. The managers of the cellar teams think it is high time that they should bring their teams into the "lineup."

Frank Kalua, manager of the Hawaiians, is adhering to this principle and for this reason is rounding up a most formidable aggregation for the coming series. Kalua is tickled to death to think that he has a bunch of youngsters that will be in the midst of the fray when the series begins. He has uncorked several promising youngsters and from recent turnouts they look like promising material.

A Mabi Battery
The general manager has secured the services of Antonio De Rego and Jack Black, now stationed at Pearl Harbor in the Naval Militia. De Rego once caught for the P. A. C.'s at Athletic park about three years ago. This little Portuguese player can maul the ball and peg the sphere to second at a rate that will deter the fastest Cobbs and Careys from piffing sacks. John Black, who was strongly inclined to render his services to the St. Louis team, has signed up with the Hawaiians. The Hawaiians have been very active of late or else Billy Miles was sleeping on the job when it came in singing this little riddle. John Black twice downed the fast St. Louis team when the Collegians jaunted to Maui for their preliminary workouts. Both De Rego and John Black hail from Maui.

Wishers Galore
Manager Kalua has the idea infused into his cranium that a team that is set to win games must have a bunch of pitchers who can be depended upon. Kalua has been scouting for slabsters from dawn to dusk, week in and week out, and his energy, of course, has somewhat been compensated. Looking over his array of pitchers, he has with his team Patoles Tufele, the Samoan roar from Hilo. This hurler is of prodigious size and can perform in the box as well as catch. Tufele will be on the mound when the game for the second series begins. William Kalusakin, a Hawaiian lad who faced the hurling job for Iolani school, has also enlisted with Kalua. He may be used as utility infielder.

Manager Kalua wagers a dollar to a penny that he has in his possession a real wonder in the person of James O. Mitchell. This twirler stands six feet in his shoes, fancies the baseball game, and knows the pastime from A to Z. With William Smith, "Bill" White, Simon Leon Sterling and "Hilo" Boyd on the reserve list, the Hawaiians will be able to top the ladder, when the second series is over. Summing up the pitchers, Kalua has in all

What Healthy Nerves Mean to You

A strong, vigorous nervous system means health, strength and ability to endure hardship and also to enjoy the full pleasures of life.

The man with healthy nerves accomplishes greater tasks with less fatigue. He has a clear eye, an active brain and a sound body. He is enabled to think better and work faster. He has energy. With healthy nerves he can overcome the hardest competition, be successful and gain wealth.

The woman with healthy nerves is never listless, weak or hopeless; she is not irritable, she never suffers from hysteria, she has a reserved surplus of endurance. Healthy nerves will prevent the sleepless mother, although worn with care and nursing, from a "break down" caused by her double or treble duty.

All men and women who suffer from these forms of nervousness—known as Neurasthenia—who have "gone to pieces," who lack energy, who have insomnia, who have stumbled to nervous prostration or nervous exhaustion, either mental or physical, whose condition is one of irritable weakness, will find ready relief and cure in the peculiar properties of

EDDIE MAHAN TO 'DO HIS BIT' AS SOLDIER OF SEA

Great Football Star Enlists as Private; Many Harvard Athletes Join Colors in East

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—The United States Marine Corps has received a substantial addition in the person of Eddie Mahan, former captain of the Harvard eleven, and acknowledged as one of the greatest footballers ever produced. Mahan's application was accepted in Boston last week, and he departed with a number of other recruits for the training camp.

He goes in the humble role of a private, and henceforth will be known as a soldier of the sea, ready to go anywhere and do anything. Mahan's home is at Natick. He was the guiding genius of Harvard's victorious 1915 team, giving over the place to Harrie Dadnum.

Last fall he acted as assistant coach to Andy Smith at the University of California. For a time after the close of the season he had a part in the political campaign of President Woodrow Wilson.

He is just one more of the Harvard celebrities who have cast their lot with the U. S. forces. Only the other day word was received of the enlistment of the last members of this year's Harvard eleven.

The complete list now includes: Charles Coolidge and Dick Hart, the slashing variety ends; Jose Harris, center; Billy Robinson, quarterback; and Tom Thacher were among the successful candidates for the Plattsburg, N. Y., Federal Training Camp, and are studying for the Reserve Officers' Corps.

Captain Walter H. Wheeler, tackle, is an ensign in the Naval Reserve, and his crew of submarine-chasing youths, which is now located coast where along the New England coast doing patrol duty, includes Bill Snow, guard, and Ralph Horween, fullback. George Caner, tackle, is in France, driving an ambulance.

Eddie Casey, the slippery halfback and ex-Captain Harrie Dadnum have left to drive ambulances abroad. Bigelow, a football man; Hutchinson of the track team, and McDougal, the hockey manager, are on the trip. Mose Taylor, sub lineman, and Willie Wilcox, sub back, are studying aviation, and Mark Horn, sub back, is entered at Plattsburg.

Captain Harry Cabot of the varsity crew, and Joe Busk, a candidate for the eight, have been accepted for the New York camp. Captain Abbott of the baseball team, also is a Plattsburg-bound. Billy Menzies, the hurdler, and Harry Minot are the track team's contribution to the federal camp. Billy Moore, the sprinter, and Bill Cummings, the baseball pitcher, had their applications turned down.

A Real Infield
Eben Cushingham, captain of the team, will be stationed at first. Eben knows the game well and is very popular with the boys. At second is Willie Smith, a boy who is expected to do something with the willow before the season closes. Spencer will be stationed at the difficult corner and with a little more pep and ginger can make things unpleasant for Anah and King Tan. The acquisition of Cabral for the shortstop position makes the infield in a class with the others. Paul Mahaula will do the backstopping for the team. The outer garden will be composed of Leon Sterling, Weston Dower and Bill White. Dower will be quartered at center field. Weston did splendid work for Kamehameha school in the Interscholastic League, both with the stick and on the bases. He is, no doubt, a valuable addition to Kalua's aggregation of ball jugglers. With these players Manager Kalua thinks his march to Pennantville will be an easy one.

+ EIGHTEENTH WIN FOR CONLEY OF DALLAS CLUB +

DALLAS, Tex., July 14.—John (Snipe) Conley, Dallas, Texas, League pitcher, and former Baltimore Fed, today holds the world record of consecutive victories for right-handed pitchers. By winning the game yesterday, shutting out San Antonio, Conley passed the record of eighteen straight, and now rests only one game away from the record for left-handers, held by Rube Marquard. Conley's seventeenth victory was a no-hit, no-run game against Fort Worth Sunday. Only one man reached first, and he was caught stealing.

TABLE GOLF IS REGULAR GAME

Not content with belting a poor, little white ball around out of doors, they must create some diversion that will keep their hand in when indoors—even at the table. Hence, we have "table golf."

This is how to play it: Take a biscuit or a piece of bread and drill a hole in it about a quarter inch in diameter. Place your "hole" in front of you and keep the chip of butter about a foot away. Then heat your knife. If the biscuit is hot you can heat the knife by plunging it into the biscuit. If the biscuit is not hot, warm your knife blade.

This done, stab the butter chip and get a small piece of it on the end. The object is to get the piece of butter into the "hole" before it melts. If you're skillful you may be able to "hole out" in one. But the chances are that the butter will melt and slip from your knife. You must "play" it out from the hazards of plates, salt and pepper cellars, glasses, spoons or whatever else is on the table.

Every time you drop the butter and pick it up again you are penalized one stroke. If the butter melts completely before you can get it into the "hole" you lose the match on account of "lost ball."

+ HANS WAGNER MADE PITTSBURG LEADER: WOLVERTON IN LINE +

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 14.—Jas. K. Callahan, manager of the Pittsburgh Nationals since the opening of the 1916 season, was today relieved of the managership of the club, and it was announced that John H. (Hans) Wagner, the veteran infielder of the club, had been appointed temporary manager. Wagner assumed charge of the club this afternoon. The dropping of Callahan, who succeeded Fred Clarke, had been predicted for several days.

Wagner, it is said, has refused to become manager permanently. Club officials treated lightly today a report

BOXERS SHOW TO FORM IN SMOKER ON TRANSPORT

What was considered one of the best programs held in local athletics was staged on board the transport Thomas. The program opened with an address by Chaplain Torrence and an overture by Hillman's orchestra. Sailor Perkins defeated Soldier Kemp in a spirited wrestling match. The first fall was gained in 16 minutes and 34 seconds and the second fall in 12 minutes and 14 seconds. In the second wrestling match "Happy" Saunders defeated Steve Gati in eight minutes and four seconds.

Sailor Colburn and Mickey Dolan battled to a draw in three rounds. The contest was a good one throughout, and was well received by the spectators. Lonnie Tucker, who made a big hit around San Francisco in the boxing bouts won a decision from "Whitely" Dahlen in five runs. The two boys gave a great exhibition, and the match was a big feature. Music and presentation of the prizes by Chaplain Torrence added to the enjoyment.

Frank C. Benevides, Portuguese interpreter in Judge Irwin's court, was appointed as an additional clerk and his salary raised $25 to $125.

that Larry Doyle of the Chicago Nationals would be engaged as manager. Others reported to be under consideration are Harry Wolverton, recent manager of the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast League, and Jack Hendricks, manager of the Indianapolis American Association Club.
